

I firmly reject any attempts to limit the ability of XM Satellite Radio to offer localized features such as their Traffic and Weather channels. I find them to be an invaluable feature, significantly more accurate and detailed than ANY other radio station local to me who offer the same features. It is one of the many reasons I proudly and happily pay the subscription fee. XM Radio has done nothing illegal, it has only competed on fair ground. Success should not be considered a crime.